

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Georgia Department of Human Services (DHS), Division of Family and Children Services (DFCS) has posted the TANF Caseload Reduction Report (ACF-202) for public viewing. The ACF-Form 202 is required by states that are reporting caseload reduction information for fiscal year 2013. Georgia is offering the public the opportunity to send comments on the estimates and methodologies used to complete the caseload reduction credit report via e-mail at mdsmith34@dhr.state.ga.us. The comment period ends on February 04, 2013.

To access the report please use the following steps: Go to www.dfcs.dhr.georgia.gov, click on "About Us" and then "Publications". Both links will be in the upper left menu. The report is on the publications page. Click on the title to bring up the report.

PART 1 –Eligibility Changes Made Since FY 2005

(Complete this section for EACH change)

1. Name of eligibility change: Change of two-parent households to a solely state-funded program.
2. Implementation date of eligibility change: FY 2007
3. Description of policy, including the change from prior policy: Beginning October 2007, Georgia opted to remove two-parent families subject to work participation requirements from TANF. Two-parent families subject to work participation requirements are in a solely state-funded program.
4. Description of the methodology used to calculate the estimated impact of this eligibility change (attach supporting materials to this form): The average monthly caseload between October 1, 2011 and September 30, 2012 equaled 34 cases. The average monthly two-parent cases for FY 2012 (34 cases) was entered into the spreadsheet in Part 2- Estimate of Caseload Reduction Credit.

5. Estimated average monthly impact of this eligibility change on caseload in comparison year:   34
